

Forum on Global Development and Human Security organized by NUAL– PH and DLSU International Studies Department

Two alumni and one visiting professor from Nagoya University delivered lectures during the Forum on “Global Development and Human Security: Perspectives from Education, Health and Labor Studies” held on October 14, 2017 (9:00 AM – 11:30 AM) at the Animo Lab, 12th Floor, Henry Sy Sr. Hall, De La Salle University, Manila. The forum was spearheaded by the Nagoya University Alumni Association – Philippine Branch (NUAL-PH) and hosted by DLSU International Studies Department led by the department chair and also asst. secretary of NUAL-PH, Dr. Ron Bridget Vilog.

Dr. Pag-asa Gaspillo, president of NUAL-PH opened the forum with her remarks introducing NUAL-PH and its mission of networking and exchange of information with industry, government, research and educational institutions and “bridging friendship and collaboration among alumni, students and teachers within NUAL-PH and among NUAL branches.”

The speakers of the forum and their topics were:

- Education: Facing Educational Inequalities across the Globe
Dr. Takayo Ogisu (Asst. Professor, GSID, Nagoya University)
Visiting Professor, DLSU International Studies Department
- Health: The Impacts of HIV and AIDS Research: The Philippines in Spotlight
Dr. Neil Tan Gana (PhD Medicine 2010, Nagoya University)
Asst. Professor, Department of Biology, Ateneo De Manila University
- Labor Studies: Typology of Returning Migrant Workers
Ms. Brenalyn Peji (GSID, 2013, Nagoya University)
Institute of Labor Studies, Department of Labor and Employment

After the lectures, Mr. Toshiyuki Taguchi of the Japan Information and Culture Center (JICC) promoted Japanese education and the Japanese Government Scholarships while the closing remarks was delivered by Mr. Ken Nakamura of the JICC.

The forum was attended by about 50 participants - coming from various schools like Ateneo De Manila University, Far Eastern University, University of the East and DLSU. NUAL-PH Officers and alumni were also present.

The NUAL-PH Officers and Resource Speakers

Dr. Ron Bridget Vilog DLSU IS Dept. chair was the emcee of the forum

Dr. Pag-asa Gaspillo, NUAL-PH President giving her opening remarks

Dr. Takayo Ogisu answers a question from Ms. Daisy Montesa (NUAL-PH Treasurer)

Dr. Neil Tan Gana lectures about HIV and AIDS

Ms. Brenalyn Peji lectures on Typology of Returning Philippine Migrants

Representatives from JICC – Mr. Taguchi and Mr. Nakamura

The participants at the forum – 14 October 2017